

House Resolution No. 1994

Whereas, it is with special pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize an outstanding young Missouri citizen who is to be commended for her scholastic aptitude and achievement; and

Whereas, Casey E. Hahn has distinguished herself as Valedictorian of the 2003 graduating class of Trenton R-IX High School in Trenton, a rewarding achievement which culminates a four-year pursuit of academic excellence; and

Whereas, during her stellar high school career, Casey Hahn has excelled in her studies while maintaining an impressive 4.0610 Grade Point Average; participating in such extracurricular activities as the National Honor Society, the Show Choir, and Band; and earning four Varsity Letters each; and

Whereas, Casey Hahn is exceedingly proud of the important leadership positions she has held as President of her Senior Class and as Co-Captain of the Varsity Volleyball Team, through which she has earned three Varsity Letters; and

Whereas, Casey Hahn is the worthy recipient of several awards and honors, including All-District Band and All-District Choir recognition, selection to the North Central Missouri Bandmasters Association Honor Band, and nomination to attend the Missouri Scholars and Joseph Baldwin academies; and

Whereas, listed in Who's Who Among American High School Students, Casey Hahn is currently employed at an attorney's office in Princeton and hopes to continue her education at the University of Missouri-Columbia where she plans to study pre-law before entering law school and becoming an attorney; and

Whereas, a kindergarten summer school tutor who participates in the Judgement House Church Drama and belongs to Grace Fellowship Baptist Church where she is active in the Choir and Youth Group, Casey Hahn has achieved all of this and more with the love and support of her wonderful parents, Wesley and Linda Hahn of Trenton:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty and robust congratulations to Casey Hahn at this proud moment of well-deserved distinction, and in wishing her only the very best as she continues to serve as a shining example of excellence in scholastic endeavor; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for 2003 Valedictorian, Casey E. Hahn.
